

The Nathan McDaniel Team Promise

Your mortgage is a significant life event. For many people it will be the most debt taken on in their lifetime. Your mortgage is more than just a loan. It is tied to the emotions of buying a home. To honor that, I make the following promise to you:

- I will help you make an informed mortgage decision by taking the time to understand your home buying goals and the larger financial picture.
- I will walk you through your options. There is no one-size-fits-all mortgage.
- I will be available to you, directly, throughout the process by your preferred mode of communication.
- Our communication will be transparent and you will receive any and all updates throughout the process in a timely manner.
- If you are purchasing property or building a home, I will work closely with your real estate agent to make sure your loan closes on time.
